MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S EX PARTE
 APPLICATION FOR ORDER
 COMPELLING DEFENDANTS TO PRODUCE UNREDACTED COPIES OF ALL DOCUMENTS CONTAINED IN INITIAL DISCLOSURES

18 1. INTRODUCTION

19 Plaintiff applies to this Court ex parte for an order 20 compelling Defendants to disclose unredacted copies of all 21 documents produced with their initial disclosures. Good cause 22 exists for this ex parte application because: (1) Plaintiff has a 23 right to the unredacted documents under FRCP 26(a); (2) Family 24 Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") does not apply to the 25 documents because they are not "education records"; (3) even if 26 FERPA applied, the author of the documents fall within FERPA's 27 "directory information" exemption; and (4) FERPA includes a 28 judicial order exception to their confidentiality requirements.

1 Should the Court refuse to issue this order ex parte,
2 Plaintiff will be prejudiced because neither she nor her counsel 3 will have knowledge of the authors of the documents which allegedly 4 contain complaints against Schmidt in time for the settlement
5 conference scheduled for April 21, 2008. If Plaintiff is required 6 to seek an order in accordance with the regular noticed motion 7 procedures, she will not be able to properly prepare for her 8 participation in the early neutral evaluation settlement conference 9 without the unredacted documents.

10 2. FACTS

11 This case is about Defendants Board of Trustees of the 12 California State University, San Diego State University, and Jeff 13 Schemmel discriminating and retaliating against Plaintiff Deena
14 Deardurff Schmidt in violation of Title IX of the Education
15 Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., which forbids sex 16 discrimination in any education program or activity receiving 17 federal financial assistance, and of California's anti-18 discrimination in employment laws, Govt. Code §12940 et seq.

19 In August 2007 Defendants terminated Schmidt's employment as 20 the head coach of San Diego State University's women's swimming and 21 diving teams after 13 years of service and only three months after 22 the construction of a new SDSU on-campus pool facility, which was 23 constructed in large part by the efforts of Schmidt and from 24 student fees obtained by the student referendum on which Schmidt 25 worked so hard. Prior to her termination, Schmidt advocated to 26 Defendants, and their agents and employees, for gender equity in 27 athletics and against sex discrimination in athletics. At the time 28 of her termination, Schmidt was battling cancer, of which Schemmel

1 was advised.

2 This action was filed in the San Diego Superior Court and 3 removed by Defendants to District Court. On February 25, 2008, 4 both parties timely exchanged witnesses, documents and other 5 information pursuant to the FRCP 26(a) initial disclosure
6 requirements. A review of Defendants' initial disclosures revealed 7 that certain documents produced, specifically communications from 8 students and parents, contained redactions. The substance of the 9 documents was not redacted but Defendants redacted the names of the 10 persons who authored the documents.

11 Plaintiff's counsel subsequently met and conferred with 12 counsel for Defendants by telephone requesting they produce un-13 redacted copies of certain documents produced in Defendants' 14 initial disclosures. By letter dated March 10, 2008, Defendants' 15 counsel indicated that they would provide "unredacted copies of 16 those documents as soon as the University has complied with its 17 FERPA obligations."

18 By letter dated March 25, 2008, Plaintiff's counsel again 19 requested they produce "unredacted copies of all documents 20 contained in the initial disclosures in advance of the settlement 21 conference" and that if no agreement could be reached, the issue 22 would be raised with Magistrate Judge William McCurine.

23 The issue of the redacted copies of documents produced by 24 Defendants in their initial disclosures was raised with Magistrate 25 Judge McCurine by Plaintiff's counsel during the April 4, 2008, 26 conference call. Counsel for Defendants indicated that FERPA's 27 confidentiality requirements, a federal privacy law protecting the 28 disclosure of educational records, may apply to the documents which 1 would require either parental/student consent or a court order

 2 before they produced the unredacted documents. Plaintiff's counsel 3 indicated that he would seek an order from the Court ex parte
 4 compelling the disclosure of the unredacted documents so that 5 Plaintiff will be fully prepared for her participation in the 6 settlement conference scheduled to be held on April 21, 2008.

7 Counsel for Defendants indicated that he would not oppose the 8 ex parte application.

9 3. GOOD CAUSE EXISTS FOR PLAINTIFF'S EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR AN 10 ORDER COMPELLING DEFENDANTS TO DISCLOSE UNREDACTED COPIES OF 11 THE DOCUMENTS PRODUCED IN THEIR INITIAL DISCLOSURES

12 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 26(a) requires each 13 party to disclose to the other party certain information related to 14 witnesses, documents, damages and insurance without awaiting a 15 discovery request. Each party must provide copies or a description 16 by category and location of all documents in its "possession, 17 custody, or control" that it "may use to support" its claims or 18 defenses. Fed. R. Civ. Proc. Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(ii). Withholding 19 such documents, unless privileged, may result in their exclusion at 20 trial. Adv. Comm. Notes on 1993 Amendments to FRCP 26(a).

21 Certain documents Defendants produced with their initial 22 documents have been redacted. Although the substance of the 23 documents is not redacted, the authors of the communications have 24 been redacted. Defendants assert that the documents are redacted 25 because FERPA may apply and they have not yet complied with their 26 obligations under FERPA, which requires Defendants to first obtain 27 parental/student consent prior to disclosing certain information 28 contained in "educational records." 20 U.S.C. §1232g.

////

1 1. FERPA Does Not Apply To The Documents

2 FERPA conditions the receipt of federal funding by educational 3 institutions on their compliance with procedures that allow access 4 to records by students and parents while restricting access by 5 other parties without student consent. Id.; Owasso Independent
6 School District v. Falvo, 534 U.S. 426, 428-249 (2002). FERPA
7 prohibits educational agencies from disclosing an individual's 8 "educational records" or "personally identifiable information 9 contained therein other than directory information," without the 10 consent of that individual's parents. 20 U.S.C. §1232g(b)(1); 34
11 C.F.R. 99. But FERPA expressly exempts "directory information" 12 from its confidentiality requirements. 20 U.S.C. §1232g(b)(1).

13 "Education records" is defined to include "those records, 14 files, documents, and other material which (i) contain information 15 directly related to a student; and (ii) are maintained by an 16 educational agency or institution or by a person acting for such 17 agency or institution." 20 U.S.C. §1232g(a)(4)(A); U.S. v. Miami 18 University, 294 F.3d 797, 812 (6th Cir. 2002). "Personally 19 identifiable information" is narrowly defined by the Act's 20 regulations to include "only the student's name, parent's name, the 21 student's or parent's address, social security number, or other 22 information that would make the student's identify easily 23 traceable." 34 C.F.R. §99.3.

24 The redacted communications Defendants produced with their 25 initial disclosures are not "education records" for purposes of 26 FERPA. The term "education records" does not include "in the case 27 of persons who are employed by an educational agency or institution 28 but who are not in attendance at such agency or institution,

1 records made and maintained in the normal course of business which 2 relate exclusively to such person in that person's capacity as an 3 employee and are not available for use for any other purpose." 20 4 U.S.C. §1232g(a)(4)(B)(iii), emphasis added.

5 The documents redacted by Defendants relate exclusively to 6 Schmidt in her capacity as the women's swimming and diving coach 7 for which she was employed by San Diego State University ("SDSU").
 8 Therefore, the authors of the communications, who are either SDSU 9 students or parents of students, must be disclosed because the 10 communications are not "education records" as defined by FERPA.

11 2. Even If FERPA Applied To The Documents, The Authors of 12 the Communications Are Expressly Exempt From FERPA's
Confidentiality Requirements

13 Should the Court find that FERPA applied, student names are 14 expressly exempt from the FERPA confidentiality requirements as 15 "directory information." 20 U.S.C. §1232g(a)(5)(A). FERPA 16 specifically exempts from its confidentiality requirements "the 17 student's name, address, telephone listing, date and place of 18 birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, degrees and 19 awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or 20 institution attended by the student." Id. Parental information, 21 with the exception of their financial records, is also exempt from 22 FERPA. C.M. v. Board of Educ. Of Union County Regional High School 23 Dist., 128 Fed.Appx. 876, 883-884 (3rd Cir. 2005). The authors of 24 the redacted communications are either SDSU students or parents of 25 SDSU students. Accordingly, Defendants must produce unredacted 26 documents to include the authors of the communications so that 27 Plaintiff will be on equal footing with Defendants in time for the 28 settlement conference.

1 FERPA excludes from its requirement of parental/student 2 consent compliance with judicial orders and subpoenas. 20 U.S.C.
3 §1232g(b)(2)(B). Should the Court issue an order compelling
4 Defendants to disclose unredacted copies of the documents, 5 Defendants must disclose information after providing notice to 6 (but does not need to obtain consent of) the parents and students 7 of such orders in advance of their compliance. 20 U.S.C.
8 §1232g(b)(2).

9 4. CONCLUSION

10 Plaintiff requests the Court grant this ex parte application 11 for an order compelling Defendants to disclose unredacted copies of 12 the documents produced with their initial disclosures by April 16, 13 2008, before the settlement conference set for April 21, 2008.
